*Building the Future
for Our Clients*

Hawkins Construction completed this newly rebuilt Publix Supermarket at 16041 Tampa Palms Blvd., which opened on August 12, 2010, drawing more than 600 patrons in less than an hour. Baseball Hall of Famer Wade Boggs cut the ribbon that launched this store in the Tampa Palms community.

The store's signature element is a towering, babbling water fountain topped with a Tampa Palms' sign near the entrance. The feature piece doubles as a fruit display counter. New additions include expanded customer service counters in the meat, fish, sushi, deli, bakery and pharmacy departments. There is an anti-gluten, anti-dairy and anti-wheat food section as well as larger varieties of natural, organic and Earth-friendly foods. The Publix at City Plaza is one of the chain's largest rebuilt stores. It replaces a 48,000-square-foot outlet demolished in January. Publix also premiered Publix Liquors, its freestanding alcoholic beverage shop in a 1,600-square-foot storefront adjacent to the grocery store.
